

EHRMAN MANSION OPEN-HOUSE

10:00 - 11:45 a.m. and 1:00 - 3:45 p.m.

Stroll through Pine Lodge (the Ehrman Mansion) for free today! Visitors are welcome to talk with costumed docents situated throughout the house as you take a self guided tour through the living room, dining room, eight upstairs bedrooms, servants' quarters, and kitchen areas. This special treat is offered today only.

Special Musical Guests:

THE WRONGLERS!

11am and 2pm

The Wronglers thrill audiences with their unique blend of bluegrass and old time music. The band's founder, Warren Hellman, is the great-great grandson of Isaias Hellman the first owner of Pine Lodge. Our sincere gratitude to Warren for underwriting this year's appearance!

"GENERAL" WILLIAM PHIPPS' CABIN

OPEN 10-12 AND 1-4

Visit the cabin of the West Shore's first homesteader in 1860! This is the one day of the year that you can walk into his cabin and view pioneer life.

VINTAGE CAR DISPLAY

Specially selected historic cars owned by Lake Tahoe collectors are parked on the west lawn of Pine Lodge for your viewing pleasure. Talk with the owners and enjoy this very special display set up in traditional concourse style.

ARTISTS-IN-RESIDENCE

Nestled on the grassy knoll overlooking the lake, be sure to visit noted artists Andy Skaff, Bill Clausen and other guest artists as they glean inspiration from the historic surroundings.

NATURE HIKES

11am, 12:30pm , 2pm

Imagine...it's the 1930's and you are a first time guest at Pine Lodge. Ken, the resident naturalist, will lead you on a 1 mile, 45 minute hike around the grounds. You will learn about area history and local flora and fauna. Meet in front of the Nature Center.

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITY ZONE

Check-in at the activity zone in front of the Children's House built in 1930. Pick up your Passport to History and get started with activities popular in the past. When you finish all five stations, claim your prize!

MOVIE

Lake of the Sky: The Story of Lake Tahoe Part II

This documentary film is narrated by park supporter Leonard Nimoy. The film features spectacular footage of Lake Tahoe. Shown continuously in the Nature Center.
