

EHRMAN MANSION OPEN-HOUSE

Stroll through the mansion for free today! Visitors are welcome to talk with costumed actors in the living room, dining room, eight upstairs bedrooms, servants' quarters, and kitchens. The house is open to visitors from 10:00 - 11:45 a.m. and from 1:00 - 3:45 p.m.

Special Musical Guests:

THE WRONGLERS!

The Wronglers thrill audiences with their unique blend of bluegrass and old time music. The band's founder, Warren Hellman, is the great-great grandson of Isaias Hellman the first owner of Pine Lodge. Our sincere gratitude to Warren for underwriting this year's appearance!

VINTAGE CAR DISPLAY

Historic cars owned by Lake Tahoe collectors are parked on the west lawn of the mansion. Talk with the owners and enjoy this very special display set up in traditional concourse style.

ARTISTS-IN-RESIDENCE

Nestled on the grassy knoll overlooking the lake, be sure to visit noted artists Andy Skaff, Bill Clausen, and Cathy McClelland as they glean inspiration from the historic surroundings.

The Hellman Family, Circa 1903

NATURE HIKE: 10:30AM, 12PM, 3PM

Imagine...it's the 1930's and you are a first time guest at Pine Lodge. Ken, the resident naturalist, will lead you on a 1 mile, 45 minute hike around the grounds. You will learn about area history and local flora and fauna. Meet at the Nature Center.

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITY ZONE

Check-in at the activity zone in front of the Children's House built in 1930. Pick up your Passport to History and get a stamp at each of the stations. When you finish all five stations, claim your prize!

MOVIE

Lake of the Sky: The Story of Lake Tahoe Part II

This documentary film is narrated by park supporter Leonard Nimoy. The film features spectacular footage of Lake Tahoe. Shown continuously in the Nature Center.
